As additional information, this painting has been created using quality professional grade artist paints and archival supports to assure long lasting beauty and to protect your investment in fine art.

To properly care of this original artwork, never display it in strong ultraviolet radiation such as direct sunlight, never hang it over a fireplace that will be used, don't display it without proper support or framing and don't try to clean it with any household solvent.

If an artwork has not already been varnished, the recommended varnishing date is the one-year anniversary date of creation for oil paintings. Other mediums do not require varnishing.

Should you feel the painting needs cleaning or varnishing, take it to a reputable painting restorer who is familiar with varnishing or cleaning procedures for all types of paintings. With proper care and handling, your painting will last for generations to come.

The artist retains the sole copyright of the original painting. Any unauthorized reproduction is in violation of international copyright laws.
